Jennifer Brum

Certified Professional Photographer

Jennifer Brum is an award winning wedding and portrait photographer located in Jacksonville, FL. In 2005, she was awarded the Certified Professional Photographer (CPP) designation and remains one of only a few photographers in this area with that title. Nationwide, only three percent of all imaging professionals are certified.

As a wedding photographer, it is her goal to document the wedding day in a way that highlights the beauty of the location and details, but also captures real moments as they unfold. Of top importance also is photographing the bride and groom at their best as well as the wedding party and family members. This includes portraits with flattering poses and professional lighting. Your wedding will be photographed with an artistic eye, keen sense of detail and awareness of key moments in an unobtrusive manner.

Jennifer loves to work with couples that are searching for a photographer that connects with them and can express their personality and love story through the wedding photography. Most packages include an engagement session, which is the perfect way for her to learn about your relationship and how you would like your wedding photographed. The engagement sessions take place on-location at the beach, a park, downtown, or maybe at a location special to your relationship.

Photography by Jennifer Brum is making waves across Jacksonville by introducing a new line of boudoir photography sessions that are fresh and contemporary without being too revealing. The line is called Peek romance photography and was inspired by Jennifer's brides that were looking for a photographer who could create images that were beautiful, classy and fashionable that were not too revealing and hinted at romance with just a "peek" of skin.

Brides that book a Peek session can purchase a "little black book" or even a magazine style flushmount album of her favorite images as a gift to the groom on the eve of the wedding day. Imagine his surprise when he opens the book to see his bride-to-be looking like a glamour girl out of the pages of Vogue magazine.

One recent bride emailed Jennifer Brum after a recent session and said, "Thank YOU for today! You were awesome! The pictures turned out gorgeous and you were so fun and easy to work with! I can't wait to see the finished product! ...you ROCK!"

Photography by Jennifer Brum is offering two ways to book a Peek session. The first is a private session at her residential studio. The second way to book is on one of her monthly "Diva Day" marathon sessions. Up to 5 women will be scheduled on the same day for one-on-one sessions at a luxury oceanfront hotel. "Diva Days" will include a private one-hour photo session, a professional make-up artist, mimosas and refreshments and a Peek goodie bag. The "Diva Day" sessions are limited and offered on a first come-first served basis. So, please visit www.peakromancephotography.com for the current schedule and gallery or her boudoir work. WR
